SUPERIOR COURT OF LOS ANGELES COUNTY LAUNCHES NEW EXTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS SUBSCRIPTION PLATFORM

Court Users and Members of the Media Can Now Subscribe and Manage Communication Preferences Directly for Notice to Attorneys, Public Notices and News Releases

The Superior Court of Los Angeles County is pleased to announce the implementation of a new external communications distribution platform to enhance communication and provide more flexibility for court users who wish to receive important news, updates and developments from the Court via email in the form of Public Notices, Notice to Attorneys and News Releases.

Effective immediately, interested court users and members of the media will have the ability to subscribe to the Court's email lists and manage their communication preferences directly through the platform. Users without an existing subscription may elect to subscribe to the Court's distribution lists through this link to manage their preferences.

Users who have an existing subscription with the Court, which was previously managed manually, are advised to check and validate their email preferences by scrolling to the bottom of future email correspondence from the Court and selecting "Manage Subscriptions" to access their customized preference center.

Users can also use the "Manage Subscriptions" option at the bottom of future email correspondence to change or update preferred subscriptions to ensure the most recent information is received.

The Court's new external communications platform is designed to improve the court user experience by allowing subscribers to manage their email subscriptions directly and efficiently.
